

Responding to the Sexual Exploitation and Trafficking of Youth

"Responding to the Sexual Exploitation and Trafficking of Youth" will provide information on the what, who, how, and why of Commercial Sexual Exploitation including a detailed discussion of identification and the "red flags." This training will focus on victim engagement and interventions with a focus on King County's Coordinated Response and the Bridge Collaborative Community Advocate Model.