

The Attendance D.I.N.E.R. is OPEN!

(Department of Innovative and Noteworthy Educational Resources)

Are you looking for several innovative strategies to take with you today and implement tomorrow? The Attendance D.I.N.E.R. will literally feature a menu of best practices in a fast-moving session with several examples and even samples: everything from a simple strategy to uncover faulty belief systems about attendance with your staff or community to ways to authentically engage students and families. A multi-tiered system of supports designed for attendance will be provided as well as visual displays of several tools for you to experience. Walk away with at least 10 strategies and a list of resources for further exploration. Come experience a D.I.N.E.R. focused on the topic of attendance. You will be provided with enough “food for thought” to make a difference tomorrow.
